Germany's largest health insurance company, BKK, just came out with an alarming estimate that the experimental quasi-vaccines killed 31,000 people there.

Having worked through college as an actuary, I'm going to suggest that the actuaries did not likely get this wrong. They are the world's experts in exactly

Estimating Vaccine-Induced Mortality, Part I

Sadly, this picture suggests that there were an estimated more than 17,000 vaccine-induced deaths during the first month of COVID-19 vaccinations throughout Europe, out of just over 17 million vaccine doses delivered. This is going to take some time to explain...

Never let anyone tell you that we could not have predicted this, or done the math. I did the math, and from several angles, and kept coming up with answers in the same ballpark.

The next few weeks are going to be a wild ride.

Addendum: The Schoefbeck letter just leaked.

German Public Health Insurer: Vaccine Side Effects Maybe 8 to 10 Times More Frequent Than Officially Reported

German publicly regulated health insurers, the Betriebskrankenkassen, report substantially higher vaccine adverse effects than the Paul-Ehrlich-Institut, our vaccine regulatory body. Andreas Schöfbeck, board member of BKK ProVita, one of these insurers, told Welt in the linked article that “The figures we have found are substantial and demand urgent ve...

Addendum 2: Steve Kirsch just informed me that our mutual friend Wouter Akema, who previously set the record for having a publication showing a poor mortality risk-benefit analysis retracted against the authors' wishes in something like 2 or 3 days, just observed a similar recorded death rate in Australia, only a little over 10% under the German report. This makes sense given that not all deaths are likely to be reported, so the Australia numbers would be expected to be an undercount.

Percentages were applied to the 6.467 reports in the PDF

According to [1], a total of 53.439.184 vaccine doses have been administered in Australia and 19.408.520 people are fully vaccinated.

According to [2], a total of 6.467 deaths have been reported to TGA's Safety Monitoring.

i'm honestly scared. While I'm excited for the evils who perpetrated this to finally be exposed, I'm scared about the human side of this. People who are triple jabbed who have been avoiding stories and data like this at all costs, will eventually not be able to avoid coming across it, and the reactions might be like nothing we've ever seen before. Anger, fear, betrayal, hopelessness can bring out a very ugly side of humanity.

Are we all vindicated, yet?

Or even looked at the unbroken criminal record for the drug kingpins involved and seen the liability waivers & unblinded trials for the red flags they are.
